HOW TO PLAY

THE DEALING OF THE CARDS

Cricket War is played with a single 52-card deck.

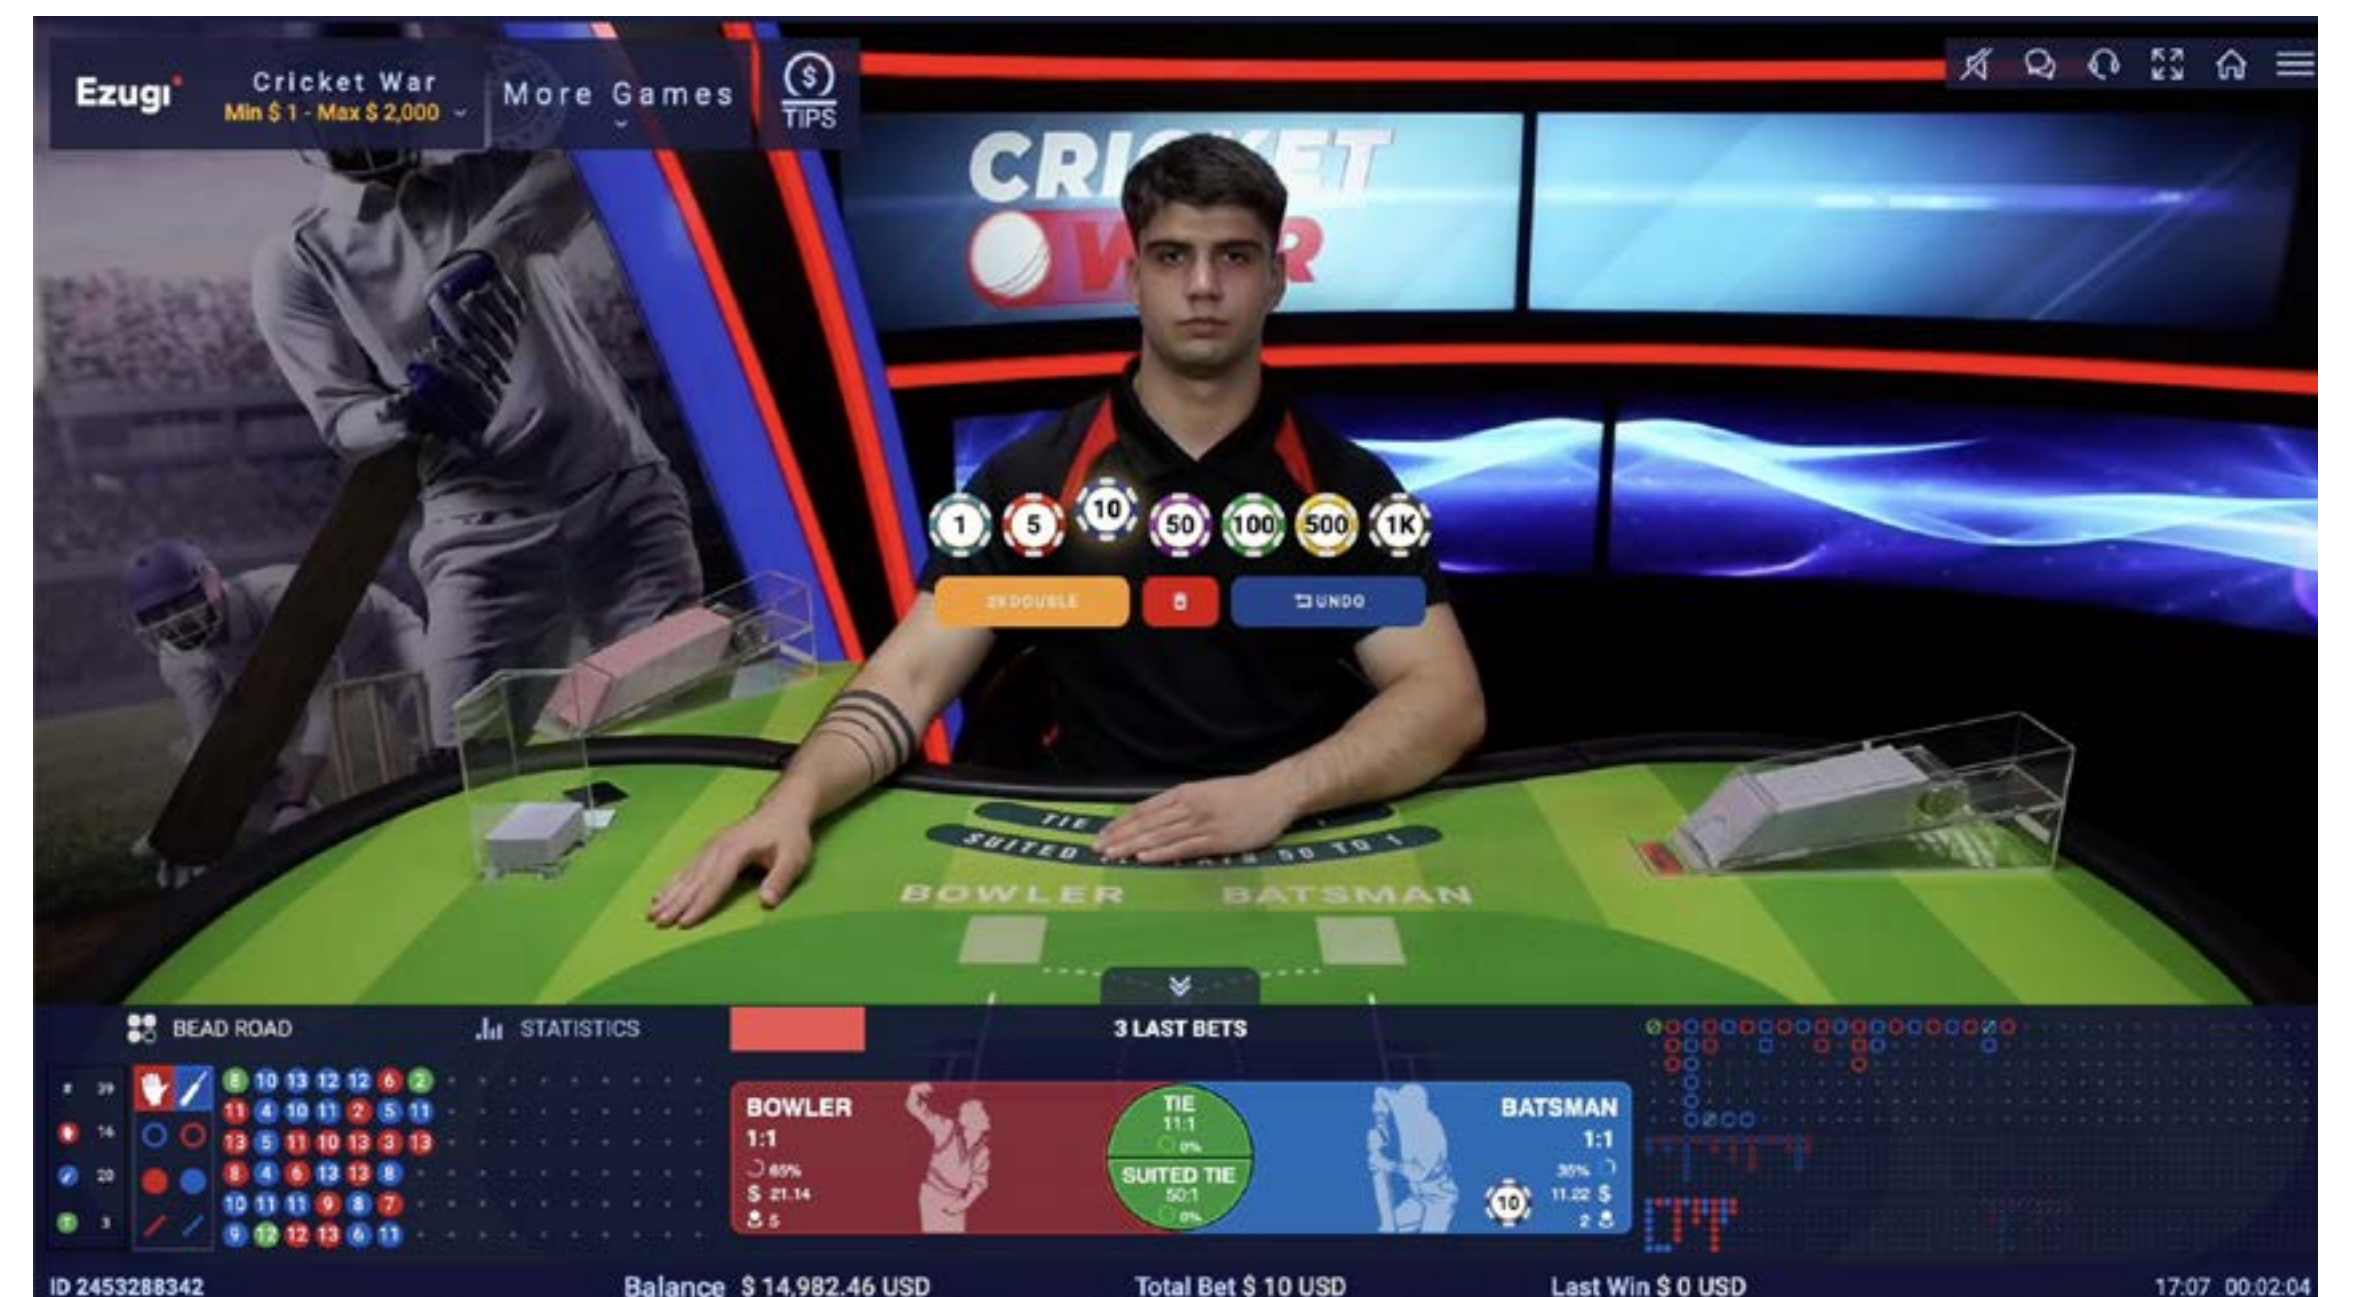

The aim of the game is to predict which side will be dealt the highest-ranking card - will it be dealt on the Bowler side or on the Batsman side?

After the betting time is closed, the dealer will deal the first card to the Bowler side, and the second card to the Batsman side.

Whichever side is dealt the highest-ranking card is declared the winner.

PLACING BETS

You can choose to place the main bet on either Bowler or Batsman. You can also place one or more side bets, where you guess if the cards for both Bowler and Batsman are going to be Tie or Suited Tie. The side bet/s can be placed with or without the main bet.
